

DREAM YEAR WEEKEND

JUNE 3-5, 2011 • WASHINGTON, DC

You're invited to a 3-day Dream Year retreat at Ebenezer's Coffeehouse in Washington DC. In one pivotal weekend, you'll learn the principles behind Dream Year and create a personal plan to bring your God-given dream to life. You'll hear from special guests, get feedback, and connect with other dreamers to share the journey.

Here's what you'll receive as a part of the experience:

The entire Dream Year process from start to finish

(For a comprehensive overview, visit DreamYear.net)

Opportunity for personal feedback on your dream

Case studies from successful and failed dreams

Personal milestones for achieving your dream in a year

New friends who can share the journey with you

Tools for managing the progress of your dream

Analysis of your dream's history and viability

Ways to overcome the challenges of your industry

Resources to help guide your journey

Special guests throughout the weekend

A much-needed getaway in an exciting city

Dream Year weekends are about more than just content. You're joining a fraternity of friends who will come behind you and champion your cause. You'll not only learn how to bring your idea to life, but enjoy off-site meetups and strategic breakfasts with fellow dreamers in your industry.

Seats are limited. Learn more and register online at DreamYear.net.